John Haines & Wm. Jones,
BEG leave to inform their friends and the public, that they have commenced a Co-partnership in the SADDLING BUSINESS, which will in future be carried on under the firm of

in Market street, No. 132, one door above the corner of Fourth, where they presume (at least to hope) that their attention to, and knowledge in business, their determination to serve on the best terms, and their known attachment as Native Americans to the Government and Constitution of their Country, will entitle them to the encouragement of a generous public. Although they cannot boast of having acquired their experience in any part of Europe, yet they take the liberty of pledging themselves, that their manufacture shall be inferior to none in this city.

HAPPY DISCOVERY.

A certain Cure for that alarming and dreadful Disorder
The Yellow Fever,
As well as any other dangerous putrid fever, Fever and ague, and other inveterate and complicated dysentery, by the use of the

POUDRE UNIQUE.

WELL known and patented in England, France, Poland, and all the capital cities in Europe, where the most astonishing cures have been effected on persons judged incurable by all physicians. In a Treatise printed in London, on the properties of this powder, by T. Seymour, M.D. late Chamberlain to his Majesty, there are stated two hundred cases, where this most valuable remedy has proved infallible, in all kind of fevers, pleurisy, bloody flux, inveterate rheumatism, sciatica, apoplexy, paralysis, yellow jaundice, ringworm, worms in children and in grown persons, scabies, chronic head and stomach aches, scurvy, tick and nephritic or stone colic, the stings of scorpions, and the most inveterate and complicated venereal disease. It is likewise the best preparative for the small pox and measles; of the greatest utility for young as well as for elder ladies at the critical epoch of their life. The efficacy of this powder in several of the above diseases has been discovered by chance, by Mr. Mahy, who cured several by administering only two of the said powder, and lost not a single patient which he undertook to cure, as proved and attested by the hereannexed certificates, whose original may be seen at Andrew Hall's umbrella shop, No. 137, corner of Chestnut and Fourth Streets, the only place where these powders are to be had, with proper directions for the use of them.—Price two dollars.

The usefulness and certainty of this remedy being so great for so many dangerous disorders, any person willing to be provided with these powders, will please to apply very soon, as the quantity at hand is not very large, and it is doubtful if for a long time, or if ever any other genuine will be imported, the secret remaining only in the hands of the inventor, in Europe, and never since communicated to, or discovered by any other person.

N. B. In the yellow and putrid fevers, this powder must be taken the second, or at least the third day.

We the subscribers, during the late sickness in this city, having taken the yellow fever, applied to Mr. Mahy for his medical assistance, we do hereby certify, that by a certain powder, called the Poudre Unique, we were perfectly recovered from the said fatal sickness, and from an experience of the happy effects of the above most valuable medicine, consider it our duty to make them known, for the benefit of our fellow citizens.

ANOTHER STRONG PROOF

Of the great and unparalleled efficacy of
DR. CHURCH'S COUGH DROPS,
In the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthmas & Consumption.
New-York, July 10, 1798.
To DR. CHURCH,

Sir,
For upwards of Twelve Years, I have labored under a severe Cough, shortness of breath, spitting of matter from my lungs and often of clotted blood, till at length I was reduced as to be unable to walk across my room, and owing to the violence of my cough at the shortness of breath could get no rest day or night. Hearing of your excellent medicine, the Cough Drops, I procured a bottle; I took a dose as soon as I got it, from which I found instantaneous relief, and by continuing it three days, I believe God I am restored to perfect health. As I believe you to have been the instrument in the hands of Providence, of saving my life, I must intreat you to publish this for the benefit of any who may be in my situation, as am confident it is one of the best medicines in the world for those complaints.

I am, Sir, your grateful servant

David, the painter, who has rendered himself particularly conspicuous during the whole progress of the revolution, and whose talents have been employed to record its most sanguinary achievements, as the triumph of republican virtue, determined not to display less zeal than his fellow citizens on this interesting occasion. He accordingly painted a picture, in commemoration of the event, in which he actually gave to the deity the very countenance of Robespierre!!!

By this Day's Mail.

NEW-YORK, November 1.

From a Correspondent.
We notice with pleasure the respectful attention to the anniversary of the birth of our illustrious President, which, at Fort Jay, was honored by a federal salute.
Every true American will feel happy, at celebrating the birth day of a President, uniting in his character the enlightened statesman, firm patriot and christian philosopher.

The extracts of a letter to the reformers in England, in this day's paper, we recommend to the serious perusal of every one who is an admirer of French principles, or desirous of any change in our excellent administration and constitution.

Several of the departments of France, from the want of a good system of police, are infested with robbers, who commit great cruelties. The Directory have invited the councils to make the communes responsible for the crimes which they suffer to be perpetrated within the districts, and they state, in their message, that one cause of the frequent robberies is, that punishment does not follow conviction sufficiently quick.

The councils have settled the expenses of the army and navy of France for the next year, at 262 millions for the army, and 125 millions for the navy.

The most celebrated statues of the Museum at Rome are ordered to be sent to Paris—the independence of the Roman republic! The colossal figure, representing the Nile, is among the number. Forty oxen are to draw them to Ripa Grandia, where they are to be embarked for France.

While we do homage to that guardian of American freedom, the liberty of the press, (says the Windsor (Vermont) paper, in speaking of the conviction of M. Lyon) we rejoice in every measure which has tendency to restrain its licentiousness; convinced that if the people of America should be deprived of this invaluable birth right, it would be by those who abuse the sacred privilege of free discussion. The conviction of Mr. Lyon we hope, may prove in the end a noble triumph of liberty, and our equal laws over that unbridled spirit of opposition to government, which is at the present moment, the heaviest curse of America.

PORTSMOUTH, (N. H.) Oct. 20.

Celebration of The President's Birth Day.

The Citizens of Portsmouth, paid a most honorable testimony of respect to the Birthday of the President of the United States, in the following very judicious manner: at ten o'clock a federal salute was fired from the Revenue Cutter, commanded by John Adams, Esq. which salute was returned by a joyful peal from all the bells; by Major Boyd's private armed ship, and from two brass field pieces centrally disposed in Capt. Whidden's garden. At 10 A. M. the Light Infantry, under the orders of Thomas Sparhawk, Esq. paraded at the State House, and after performing a variety of military evolutions in a very superior style, marched out of town, to escort his Excellency Gov. GILMAN in, who had previously been invited to honor an elegant entertainment with his presence, which had been provided by his fellow citizens at the assembly-room. The military effort and his excellency met at the confines of the town, when, with that distinguished politeness which marks the character of the finished gentleman, he instantly dismounted, and placed himself with the line of Infantry, and in this manner was conducted to his lodgings at Col. Brewster's; his arrival being announced by 16 rounds of artillery. At 3 P. M. the military resumed the line of march, and waited on his Excellency to the place of entertainment, where they displayed files, saluted, fired a feu de joye and were dismissed. A few minutes past 3, his Excellency entered the room, [Thomas Martin, Esq. acting as President, and Col. James Sheafe as Vice-President,] and participated of a dinner which did honor to the stewards and reflected equal credit on Mrs. Whidden, whose abilities were never displayed to more advantage. His Excellency was attended by his suite and followed by the Rev. Clergy. Among whom we noticed Dr. Tappan, the Hollisian professor of Divinity at Cambridge and many other distinguished characters. A great number of the militia officers, joined the escort in complete uniform. What rendered the preference of his Excellency peculiarly grateful to his fellow citizens at this moment, was, that he had just completed his personal review of the militia throughout the State, and returned in perfect health to the affections of a people, who appreciate his talents, and revere his virtues.

After dinner a number of federal and patriotic songs were given out, and the following original and most excellent songs sung with high approbation. The company amounting to nearly 80, broke up at an early hour, and retired with that decorum, which is well become men who acknowledge themselves the citizens of a federal republic, which gave birth to the illustrious JOHN ADAMS, no less dignified by his private, than immortalized by his public virtues, and natives of a State or subjects thereof in which the truly excellent and really patriotic JOHN TAYLOR GILMAN presides with peculiar honour to himself, and distinguished felicities to the State of New-Hampshire.

So long as ADAMS guides the Federal Car,
So long may GILMAN shine the brightest Star,
Mid the bright Galaxy that lights Columbia's way,
Still shining brighter in the perfect day.

The following were among the most celebrated Toasts.

1st. The day we celebrate—may the virtues of our illustrious President John Adams, be ever held in grateful remembrance by his country.

2d. The United States of America—may their union and independence be commensurate with time.

3d. The State of New-Hampshire—may it continue a luminous star in the American constellation.

4th. The virtuous majorities in the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

5th. George Washington Commander of the armies of the United States—may our country never forget to honour the man who sacrifices his own happiness to her safety.

6th. The armies of the United States—may our enemies know their virtues and fear to provoke their exertions.

7th. Our rising navy—may she protect our infested commerce and thunder destruction on our enemies.

8th. The Heads of the four great Departments of State.

9th. Messrs. Pinckney, Marshall and Gerry—may such integrity, firmness and decision as they have displayed, ever triumph over artifices disgraceful to a nation.

10. American volunteers—an antidote to the diplomatic skill of Talleyrand and his American affiliates.

11. Friends to the friends, reformation to the opposers, and confusion to the enemies of our government.

12. United Councils & vigorous measures.

13. May America learn wisdom from the example of so many republican catastrophes passing in review before her eyes.

14. May the ardour of passion in any cause never lead us to forget charity, humanity and benevolence.

15. May fraud and force in no nation be allowed to be the measure of right and wrong.

16. The fair daughters of America—May their smiles and favor always reward their own and their country's protectors.

VOLUNTEERS
(After the Governor retired.)

1. The Governor of the State of Hampshire, John Taylor Gilman.

2. The President of the Day, Thomas Martin, Esq.

3. The Vice-President, James Sheafe Esq.

4. May the genius of Federalism exterminate from our country the demon of Jacobinism and faction.

5. May the American army be on all occasions as successful, as it was on the 19th Oct. 1781.

Songs, sung on the above occasion, will appear in to-morrow's Gazette.

BOSTON, October 26.

From France.

The Little Cherub arrived at Duxbury, on Monday last, 38 days from Nantz. Nothing certain was known there of Buonaparte. The French government, from some cause, evince a strong desire to compromise with the United States. The brig Cyrus, Captain Tyler, for this port, failed in company, on board of which, Joseph Wood ward, Esq. of Tewksbury, near Boston, was a passenger, and entrusted with Dispatches addressed to our Government.

Yesterday Captains Blake and Crumby, of the unfortunate Americans who returned to their country from France, in the Benjamin Franklin, arrived at Philadelphia, reached this town. Captain Quimby has given to us for publication, the following memorial, (which will of itself explain the cause which produced it) together with a letter on the subject from the American Consul General at Paris, to whom the memorial had been entrusted. Before the receipt of this letter, the memorialists had been allowed to take passage in the cartel.

COPY of a MEMORIAL

To the MINISTER of MARINE, &c.

The Memorial of the American Captains who have had their vessels captured and condemned, respectfully represents:

That the undersigned, having been refused permission to embark in the cartel ship, commanded by Captain Lloyd Jones, by the Commissary of Marine, who says, that none would be permitted to embark, either in the said cartel ship, or in any of the neutral vessels bound to the United States, unless they should have passports signed by the Minister for that purpose.

Thus circumstanced, they find themselves impelled to resort to the Citizen Minister for that indulgence; not doubting, but that animated by the magnanimity and humanity for which the French nation is so justly renowned, he will give those orders, equally prompt and efficient, which their unpleasant and truly distressed situation, as well as the crews, so loudly claim; either to embark in Captain Jones's cartel, or in any other neutral vessel bound to the United States.

Mark Fernald, John Crumby, Samuel Hancock, Alexander Chisholm, David Ewen, Joseph Brown, Enoch Randall, Appleton Wardon, Increase Blake, Joseph Smith, George Hall.

Bordeaux, Aug. 14.

Paris, Aug. 22.

Captain John Crumby.

to the Minister with an earnest request to him to comply with its desire, but the agreeable event which has been just communicated to me, of that Minister having given general and special instructions to aid and protect all Americans at the different ports, leaves me no room to doubt of your and my other countrymen's difficulties at Bordeaux being by this time removed; I have, therefore, kept the petition, and begging you and them to accept assurances of my good wishes, I am respectfully,
Your most Humble Servant,
FULW. R. SKIPWITH.

Couzard, in the French Council of 500, Aug. 1, moved, for the modification of the law, which enacts that the neutrality of a vessel shall be decided by her cargo—or that English goods or produce should imply English property. His speech was ordered to be printed.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,
FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 2.

Mr. Richardet being about to return to the city, the papers for citizens, resident in Germantown, will be discontinued after this evening.

It is with infinite satisfaction we inform our Readers, that yesterday the Federal Interest of New-Jersey obtained a complete triumph over the anti-federal junto.

Notwithstanding the attempts which were made by the latter to oust Governor Howell, he was re-elected Governor by an almost unanimous vote—there being only one in the opposition.

JONATHAN DAYTON was elected Senator of the United States in the place of Mr. Stockton, who declined being considered a Candidate. His opponent was Dr. Elmer, a Federalist also.

The French Government has revived the detestable laws respecting Gunning and Fishing—which were the most horrid which existed with the King. No Citizen now can kill a bird or catch a fish without purchasing a special licence!!

The poor Swifs!!

A letter from Zurich, in Switzerland, dated June 10, gives the following circumstantial account of the carrying away of the treasure of that town—"On the 5th of June, the French war commissary, Pommier, gave notice that Citizen Rapinat would come in the evening to inspect the treasure, and that therefore the deputies of the chamber of administration might hold themselves in readiness. About six o'clock, Rapinat, Rochiere, and Pommier made their appearance with foldiers, and required the keys of the treasury. These were refused him, and secretary Metz hastened to fetch the stadthalter Pfenniger, and the president of the chamber of administration, Wyls; both of whom came and protested against such a proceeding.

Rapinat then demanded the keys, saying menacingly, "Voila les bayonettes. You see the bayonettes; to which the stadthalter Pfenniger, replied, "Had we many bayonettes as you, we would dispute it with you. I shall immediately send an account of this proceeding to Arau." "You will," said Rapinat, "then do not forget to add, that we shall carry it away in four days time." He then broke off the seal and ransacked the treasury, which was resealed and carried away in waggons by the French."

From the New-York Daily Gazette.

By Capt. O'Brien we are informed, that the French had made another attempt to invade Ireland, and had landed a number of men in the North; but hearing the fate of their countrymen, they re-embarked. Their number was supposed to have been between 1000 and 1500.

Frankfort (Ken.) Oct. 2.

We understand that several thousand copies of the Dispatches from the American Voyagers are sent to this date by the General Government, to be distributed among the people.

A gentleman of this town just arrived from Nantz informs, that when he left that place, Zachariah Cox was in close confinement, and his most intimate friends not permitted to speak with him. Said to be a consequence of an order from the General Government. Governor Sargeant had a meeting of some of the inhabitants of Nantz, and informed them that the government would soon be organized, and strictly recommended the organization of the militia. That the crops were partial—harvested through a Cotton field of fifty acres, and saw it in many instances nine feet high. When he passed through the Chickasaw nation, the Indians were all gone to the Bluffs, to receive from General Wilkinson the presents sent by the General Government.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

DECEASED last night, a second time, from the Marine Camp, David Luper a sailor. He had when he went away, a plain blue jacket and well light blue overalls, a round hat, which had been bound with yellow, and a pair of new shoes. He is a Carpenter by trade, has grey eyes, sandy hair, a full face, and a pith in his upper lip. His back is still sore from a blow he got a few days ago. He may be discovered by his fleeing, as he plays extremely well.

PROPOSALS,

Insurance Company of North America.

For Insurance against FIRE, on Dwelling-Houses, Ware-Houses, and other Buildings (and on Goods contained in such Buildings) distant from Philadelphia, in the United States.

I. Common Insurances, on hazards of the first class, will be undertaken at a premium of about half per cent. per annum. For extra hazardous risks a larger premium will be required, which will vary according to circumstances, seldom exceeding one per cent. per annum; but in some instances, where the property insured is not only in itself extra hazardous, but rendered still more so by the vicinity of extra hazardous buildings and occupations, the premium demanded will be raised according to circumstances.

Houses and Ware-Houses, the walls and partitions of which are wholly of stone or brick, well constructed, so as to be guarded as well as may be against fires from within, and free from extra hazardous buildings and occupations in their neighborhood, will be deemed hazardous of the first class, and may be insured to their full value.

Also Goods and Merchandise, not of an extra hazardous kind, in casks, boxes, or packages, deposited in such buildings, to an amount not exceeding $1000 dollars; but if more than this sum is required to be insured in one tenement, an additional premium will be required, in proportion to circumstances.

II. Insurances will also be made on buildings and goods extra hazardous, at premiums proportioned to the risks. But it is not easy to arrange these under particular heads or classes, so as to describe each with the necessary accuracy. Each case must therefore be decided upon according to the circumstances attending it; and these circumstances will, in general, appear from the description accompanying the application.

Buildings partly constructed of brick or stone, are preferable to those wholly wooden. And in both cases, the style of building, how they are occupied, how they are situated, the neighboring buildings, and how occupied, are considerations to be taken into view. And with respect to goods, their tendency, whether from their nature, or from the manner in which they are exposed, either to commence or to increase an accident, fire, and their liability in such case to receive damage by wet, or by sudden and hasty removal, or to be stolen in time of confusion and hurry, are all circumstances of weight; and the premiums must be proportioned accordingly.

III. The following conditions are to be understood by the parties.

1st. The insurance is not binding till the stipulated premium be paid; but it shall be deemed effectual from the time of such payment and acceptance thereof, whether the policy be immediately signed or not.

2d. Insurances may be renewed at the expiration of the term of the policy, without further expense than the payment of the premium of the renewed term, the circumstances continuing the same as they were under the former policy; but the payment of the premium is essential to such renewal; and if the party insured suffers any time to elapse after the expiration of the former insurance, before he pays a premium for the renewal, he is not insured during such time; nor can the insurance be renewed on the former policy but by computing the commencement of the renewal from the expiration of the former insurance. The subject of insurance may nevertheless be open to treaty for a new insurance.

3d. If any other insurance be made on the same property; it must be made known at the time of application, otherwise the policy made on such application will be void.

4th. Goods held in trust, or on consignment, may be insured as such in a separate policy; but they are not to be considered as insured otherwise.

5th. This company will not be liable or accountable for any loss or damage occasioned by any foreign invasion, or by any military or usurped force; or by reason of any civil commotion; or occasioned by gunpowder, aqueducts or other thing of the like kind kept in the building, or amongst the property insured.

6th. Bills of Exchange, Bonds and other Securities, Title Deeds, Money, Bank and other promissory notes, are not included in any insurance; nor are paintings, medals, jewels, gems, antique curiosities, or mirrors exceeding the value of twenty-five dollars each, to be considered as insured unless particularly mentioned and by special agreement.

7th. No insurance will be made for a shorter term than one year, nor for a longer term than seven years. Persons choosing to insure for seven years shall be allowed one year's premium by way of discount. One third of a year's premium shall be abated in like manner on an insurance for three years.

8th. Losses sustained by fire on property insured, shall be paid in thirty days after due proof and liquidation thereof, without deduction.

A declaration of the property to be insured will be expected with each application, to be made by a master carpenter and signed by him, as well as by the owner of the building or applicant for insurance, and attested before a Notary or principal Magistrate, who will certify his knowledge of the premises and their credibility.

With respect to Houses and other Buildings.

1st. The site and position, describing the street or road on or near which the building stands; its contiguity to water, and other circumstances relative to the extinguishment of fire in case of accident; and particularly whether any and what fire companies are established, and engines provided, in the place or neighborhood.

2d. The materials of which it is built, whether of brick, stone or wood, and what part of each, as well as to the outside walls as inside or partition walls, and their respective height and thickness; the style of the roof and of what materials; how secured by battlements or party walls; what kind of access to the top of the house and to the chimneys; whether any and what electric rods; the number and kind of fire places; and the kind of deposit for ashes.

3d. The dimensions of the building and how divided, and the style in which it is finished so as to enable indifferent persons to judge in what manner it is to be repaired or rebuilt in case of injury; the age and condition of the building, and how occupied, whether merely as a dwelling house, or for any other, and for what purpose; also an estimate of the value of the house or building independent of the ground.

4th. The situation with respect to other buildings or back buildings, whether adjoining or not, comprehending at least one hundred feet each way: what kind of buildings are within that distance, how built, of what materials, and how occupied or improved, whether as dwellings for private families or otherwise; whether any and what trade or manufacture is carried on, and particularly whether there be any extra hazardous articles used, or usually deposited in the house, or within the distance aforesaid, and of what kind.

Respecting goods in Houses, Warehouses, &c.

1. A general description of the building in which they are kept will be expected, similar in all respects, as to the danger from fire, with that required for Insurance on the buildings themselves.

2. A description of the kinds and nature of the goods, whether in casks or other packages, or opened; and whether displayed in whole pieces or in the usual form for retailing. And if the goods vary materially in kind, a general estimate of the value of each kind proposed to be insured; but in the last particular minute details of description is not expected.

3. Articles of the following kinds are deemed extra hazardous, though in various degrees, in whatever building they may be placed, viz. pitch, tar, turpentine, rosin, wax, tallow, oil, inflammable spirits, sulphur, hemp, flax, cotton, dry goods of an inflammable kind opened—Glass, china ware or porcelain, especially unpacked; Looking glasses, jewelry; and all other articles more than commonly inflammable, or more than commonly liable to injury by sudden removal or by moisture, or particularly obnoxious to theft on an alarm of fire.

Letters post paid, directed to the Secretary of the Board of Directors, will be duly attended to. An order for Insurance accompanied by the means of paying the premium, will be immediately executed on the premium being paid. If the application contain an enquiry only, it will be answered.

By order of the Board,

Mills, Portage, &c.
TO BE LEASED FOR A TERM OF YEARS.

TO be leased, for a term not less than three, nor more than seven years, a VALUABLE PROPERTY at the Seneca Falls, in the county of Onondaga, and State of New-York, on the Banks of the Seneca-river, two miles west of the Cayuga-ferry, and eleven miles east of Geneva.

This establishment consists of an excellent grist mill, saw mill, dwelling house, barn, and a portage or carrying place, with between thirty and forty acres of land, under good improvement, and as much more in the vicinity, as may be required for future improvement.

The grist mill is a handsome, new and well finished building, of 20 by 30 feet, 3 stories high and furnished with a run of excellent Burr stones and another of Hopus stones, of the best quality—and the most approved bolts; &c. calculated to make all the different qualities of flour for exportation or for home consumption: It is accessible by water from every part of the Cayuga-lake and Seneca-river, as well as from the Seneca-lake—and from its situation, commands a very extensive and increasing custom: The stream on which it stands, being the outlet of the Seneca-lake, the mill can never be in want of water; and as it has been kept working during the severest season of the last winter, it is not liable to be impeded by frost.

The saw mill is also new, situated on the same stream, now furnished with an ample stock of logs, of which a supply may at all times be procured by land or water, of the best quality.

The dwelling house is well calculated for the use of the miller, is new, and sufficiently large: The barn is about 40 feet square, and entirely new.

The portage is 3-4ths of a mile in length, along the Seneca-falls—over which were passed in the last year, nearly two hundred boats with their contents; this object is already productive of a handsome income, which must be increasing and permanent.

Among the many advantages of this situation, must be numbered the fertility of the surrounding country—being the best improved part of the county of Onondaga—the concentration of intercourse by land and water, the Genesee flatland passing through it, as well as all water carriage to Geneva, and the counties of Ontario and Steuben; which renders it a most eligible stand for a Store or Tavern.—The river and lakes abound in fish and fowl, and the country with deer and other game.

Besides the mills already erected at this place, it is calculated for any additional water works that may be found necessary—Filling mill, bark mill, tannery, forges, &c. may be erected at a small expense—Iron ore may be brought in boats from the Cayuga lake; and it is thought to abound in the neighborhood.

The stock on hand will be sold to the lessee, and the cattle, utensils, smith's forge, &c. may be sold or let the premises.

If a purchase should offer for the whole or an undivided part of the premises it will be sold.

For terms of sale or lease, apply to Mr. WILHELM MYNBERG, at the Seneca falls, or to the subscriber, at Schenectady.

Federal Mills,

ADJOINING Georgetown, and the City of Washington, will be offered at Public Sale, on the 10th day of September next, at the Union Tavern, if not previously sold at Private sale.

Those mills in point of situation for business and natural advantages are generally admitted to be equal to any in America. The Merchant Mill is a large brick house, eighty feet by fifty, almost new, in which are erected four pair of Burr mill stones with elevators, hopperboys and bolting cloths, completely finished and constructed in such a manner that the whole of the mills may manufacture flour at the same time. The country mill which is erected near the other, is entirely new, a strong stone building, containing one pair of stones, and built in such a manner that the second pair may be put up with little expense. This mill is conveniently finished, and calculated to carry on extensively, country work, of which it gets a constant supply. There is belonging to the said mills 27 1/2 acres of land, the whole of which will be sold with the mills.

One third of the purchase money will be required in sixty days from the day of sale, and the balance a liberal credit will be given. Further particulars will be made known on the day of sale.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That no other persons shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of this act, than those of the following descriptions, or their widows and heirs, viz. First, those heads of families, and single persons, not members of any such families, who were residents in one of the provinces aforesaid, prior to the fourth day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and who abandoned their settlements, in consequence of having given aid to the United Colonies or States, in the revolutionary War against Great-Britain, or with intention to give such aid, and continued in the United States, or in their service, during the said war, and did not return to reside in the dominions of the king of Great-Britain, prior to the twenty-fifth of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three. CAUTION.

WHEREAS a certain person swindled from me on the first inst. by giving me in lieu thereof a forged check on the Bank of North America, a note of that date, drawn in my favour by Mr. John Travis; and payable in six months, for three thousand four hundred and fifty seven dollars and forty-six cents. ALL persons are desired not to receive any transfer of it, as it will not be paid by either the drawer or endorser unless recovered by law.

WILLIAM NICHOLS,

august 6.

The Public are hereby informed, THAT I did not mean to authorize Col. William Nichols to declare, that I would not pay, unless recovered by law, my note alluded to in his caution of the 6th of August, published in the Gazette of the United States of last evening. I sincerely lament his loss, and told him I would do all I could do consistently with my credit to serve him, but went no farther.

JOHN TRAVIS.
